Quote of the week

Parents would think it a great calamity
to have their children born dumb; they would mourn over it, and weep; and well they might;
but did you ever think of the many dumb children God has?
The churches are full of them; they never speak for Christ.
They can talk about politics, art, and science;
they can speak well enough and fast enough about the fashions of the day, but they have no voice for the Son of God.

D. L. Moody
